 RE: Jordan Extension trip

Note: At the end of our last day of Israel “touring”—a free day in Jerusalem (Sat, June 2), those of us going on the Jordan trip will be dropped off (with our luggage) near Jaffa Gate and check into our hotel (Gloria Hotel). Dinner (Sat night) and breakfast (Monday morning) are covered. We will enjoy the free day in Jerusalem doing what you prefer. Sunday morning, we will get on our bus to the border crossing between Israel and Jordan (Allenby Bridge area, not far from Jericho) by about 8 a.m. below Jaffa Gate. We will see the sites on the schedule below.

On Wednesday, after breakfast at the hotel in the Petra area, we will drive from the Petra area to the border crossing, getting lunch along the way. After the border crossing, we will head to Jerusalem and get off the bus at Jaffa Gate (with our luggage) around 3 p.m.. Dinner will be on your own and you will not have a room for a shower. You will have to arrange for a shuttle to the airport that evening. I am sure that the Gloria hotel will allow you to store your luggage somewhere safe for a few hours.

FYI: You can get to the Ben Gurion airport on a shuttle (ca. $25.00), a taxi (ca. $100.00), or take the high speed rail (ca. $15.00). For the high speed rail, you will have to walk with your luggage to West Jerusalem, about 2 blocks from the New Gate, take a light rail to the main train station, and head into that station, buy your ticket at a kiosk and climb aboard. I might be able to arrange a ride to the airport, leaving Jerusalem at 3 p.m. with the Twin Falls, ID, group. If your departure flight is much later, it would probably be worth it to have dinner in the Old City and head to the airport at an appropriate time (4 hours before your departure time).
