COVID Vaccinations

At this point in time, Israel is not requiring any COVID vaccinations or COVID pretests. I don't expect that to change. If it does, I will send out an email to anyone signed up for the trip.

TRAVEL INSURANCE

Each trip participant must make their own decision about trip insurance. Although we provide a recommended vendor (Travel Guard), you can pick your own vendor if preferred. You need to read the instructions carefully and pick the level of coverage you desire. The parameters of their coverage will determine whether they will refund all, some, or none of your trip costs.

You are not required to purchase trip insurance. However, you must realize this important reality. In addition to the parameters that govern whether you receive a refund if you have to cancel your trip before you make your final payment, travel insurance would be the only way you would receive any refund for your trip costs after we have sent the money to the airline and the land vendor. Once we have made those payments, TMS would have no money with which to provide you a refund. Travel/trip insurance would be your only recourse for a refund of trip expenses.

LIABILITY/ACTIVITY RELEASE FORM

To protect the seminary from liability issues, please complete the liability/activity release form.

ACADEMICS

Up to four units of TMS credit are available for current TMS students who are enrolled in a degree program:

- Two units for the spring semester Geography of Israel Class (BI652- optional—taught at TMS)—no academic tuition scholarship funds available for this course as an Israel trip benefit.
- Two units for the summer school Field Studies in Israel course (BI653- optional—part of TMS Israel trip). Dr. Grisanti will provide a course syllabus by after course preregistration for Summer and Fall concludes—no academic tuition scholarship funds available for this course as an Israel trip benefit.

Tuition scholarships will not be offered specifically for students going on the TMS Israel trip for either BI652 or BI653. Any other spring semester tuition scholarship awarded may be used for BI652 as part of your regular course load.

Current TMS students may be eligible for a TMS Israel trip scholarship. God has blessed us with funds that enable us to offer several $2500.00 Israel trip scholarships. Read the instructions (click on below link) carefully before asking Christine Dixon or Dr. Grisanti questions. You will find the scholarship instructions and the scholarship application form. Fill the application out completely and be sure to submit the required essay.

Create a link to the scholarship instructions called “TMS Israel trip scholarship instructions and application”.

PASSPORT

If you are even considering going on the trip, please begin the process of obtaining a US passport if you don't have one. If your passport is scheduled to expire on or before December 2023 (6 months after our return date), you need to renew your passport for this trip. If you don't take care of this before February, be sure to pay for the faster service. If you are not traveling on a United States Passport, please check with your consular office for VISA requirements to travel to Israel.

If you are a TMS student, be certain to let your International Student Advisor know about your trip plans.

TRAVEL

2023 TMS Israel trip flight itinerary

*Airlines often change exact times along way. Dr. Grisanti will provide any essential updated itinerary information closer to our departure day. Our group reservation is on Lufthansa and involves a one-stop flight both ways.

Date	Airline flight	Dep. city and time	Arr. city and time	Duration
5/15	El Al #6	LAX- 11:30 a.m.	TLV- 11:25 a.m.- arr. on 5/16	13:55
6/4	El Al #5	TLV- 1:05 a.m.	LAX- 6:00 a.m.	14:55

For those who live in other parts of the country, you can travel to LAX and then from and back to LAX with most of the group. Or you can make your own reservations from your home airport to Israel and back. You may make your own reservations using the instructions below or use our travel agent, Craig Dunning (craig@discipleshiptravel.com; (682) 227-0175).

If you want to fly out of and return to a different city than LAX:

In this case, since the group reservation involves a one-stop El Al flight from LAX to the Ben Gurion airport outside of Tel Aviv, it might be simplest to book your own flight reservation on another airline (El Al does fly from other large cities in the US and Canada). You must arrive BEFORE the group flying from LAX (before 11:25 p.m. on 5/16) if you want to ride the bus we provide for the transfer from the Ben Gurion airport to Jerusalem. If your flight into Israel is delayed for some reason or is scheduled to land after the group arrival, we will not wait for you. You will need to take a sherut/shuttle or taxi to Jerusalem. I will give instructions for that later.

If you want to arrive in Israel or depart from Israel on a different day than the group:

Sometimes a person wants to arrive in Israel a day or so before the group (but on the group reservation—using the El AL group reservation out of LAX) to get some rest before the trip begins. In that case, you would pay the full trip price (and your flight costs would be part of the trip costs). Sometimes, there is an additional charge required by the airline for “deviations” from the group reservation. If that is the case, you would pay extra in your final trip payment to cover that cost. If you want to arrive or depart on a different day with a flight reservation you make, the below info also applies to you. Please contact Craig Dunning if you need a “deviation” like this.

If you arrive or depart on a different day than the group, the shuttle/taxi cost and the additional hotel costs will be your responsibility. Dr. Grisanti can help explain what to do when the departure date gets closer.

FYI for those who arrive to Israel early—we are staying at the Gloria hotel as a group for our Jerusalem days. If you want to stay there, email them to inquire about room availability: gloriahl@netvision.net.il. Tell them that you are part of the TMS Israel study group, led by Dr. Michael Grisanti. Don't wait too long to do this because May/June are busy times for hotels in Israel. You can also find a hotel in the Tel Aviv area and meet us at the airport or another hotel in Jerusalem.

If you are making your own flight arrangements but arriving on the same day as the group and you want to share the bus for airport transfers covered by trip costs:

Unless you want to pay for your own transportation from the Ben Gurion (Tel Aviv) airport to Jerusalem and from Jerusalem to the airport and you are arriving the same day as the group arrives in Israel, you must arrive at the Ben Gurion airport (TLV) before the group is scheduled to arrive and must schedule your departure for after the group departs. That way your bus transportation after arrival and before departure is covered by the trip costs. In that case, you would pay the “Land Only” price listed above. The group will not wait at the Tel Aviv airport for late arrivals or go to the Tel Aviv airport for early departures. In those cases, you would have to pay for your own taxi or shuttle.

We ARE DOING a four-day Jordan extension trip after the TMS trip this year. The Jordan trip information can be found through a link on the initial page of the Israel trip website. I insert that information here because it would require you to head back to the U.S. on a different day. Our agent has created a separate group reservation for Jordan trip participants (a different return date). Depending on your situation, you could travel to and from Israel on the Jordan trip group itinerary or just book your return flight for a day that works with the Jordan extension trip (see below). Again, we have a group reservation on El Al for a number of seats for those dates.
