Itinerary changes:

- In exceptional circumstances the in-country trip itinerary is subject to change. Such circumstances may include mechanical problems during travel, weather at site locations, security concerns, or crowd considerations at the sites.
- It is the responsibility of each participant to arrange and pay for his own airline tickets to Antalya for the start of the tour and from Athens at the end (see the detailed itinerary below). Each participant must provide Dr. Klassen (bklassen@tms.edu) with the details of the proposed itinerary before it has been finalized.
- All flight times are subject to change by the airlines without advance notice. The Master's Seminary is not responsible for such changes or delays and does not reimburse expenses resulting from such delays.
- It remains the responsibility of each participant to rearrange his international flight details if they are changed by the airlines.

Final DISCLAIMER:

The Master's Seminary (TMS) acts only as an agent for the various companies whose accommodations are utilized. TMS assumes no responsibility or liability in connection with the services of any automobile, airplane, boat, or other conveyance which will be used either wholly or in part. Neither will TMS be responsible for any act, error, omission, or any injury, loss, accident, or any delay which may be occasioned by reason of defect in any vehicle or through neglect or default of any company or person engaged in the conveying of passengers. TMS accepts no responsibility for losses or additional expenses due to delays or changes in motor coach, train, airplane services, or that of any other conveyance, sickness, accident, weather, strikes, war, quarantine, or other causes; and all such losses or expenses must be borne by the passenger. The airlines and/or other transportation companies concerned are not to be held responsible for any act, omission, or event that may occur during the time the passengers are not aboard the airplane or conveyance. The passage contract, as issued by the airlines or other transportation companies involved with the tour, shall constitute the sole contract between the purchaser and the airlines or transportation companies and limit the responsibilities of the tour sponsors concerning the related travel and accommodations. Prices and schedules that appear in any brochure or website are based on current schedules and tariff rates and are subject to change without notice. Payment of a deposit or fees, in whole or in part, constitutes a declaration of full understanding and acceptance of the terms and conditions outlined in this application.
